

Employer's accrued liability.

Sec. 742.30. The employer's accrued liability, as determined pursuant to section 742.29 of the Revised Code, shall be paid to the police and firemen's disability and pension fund. Payments shall be credited to the policemen's pension reserve fund, or to the firemen's pension reserve fund, in accordance with the relief and pension fund from which the liability for such payment arises, until such time as the employer's accrued liability on account of pensioners and those receiving other benefits on the rolls of the particular police relief and pension fund, or firemen's relief and pension fund, is satisfied. Thereafter, payments shall be credited to the policemen's contribution fund or the firemen's contribution fund, in accordance with the relief and pension fund from which the liability for such payments arises, until such time as the employers' accrued liability on account of deductions made from the compensation of policemen or firemen, as the case may be, under the particular police relief and pension fund, or firemen's relief and pension fund, is satisfied. Thereafter, payments shall be credited to the policemen employers' contribution fund, or firemen employers' contribution fund, in accordance with the relief and pension fund from which the liability for such payments arises, until such time as the employers' total accrued liability under the particular police relief and pension fund, or firemen's relief and pension fund, is satisfied.

That part of the employer's accrued liability remaining unpaid on January 1,  1969, shall be paid by the employer  at not less than the following rates per year: two per cent in 1969, three per cent in 1970, four per cent in 1971, and five per cent per annum beginning in 1972 and each year thereafter for fifty-five years. Payments shall be  fixed annually and paid on dates  fixed by the board of trustees of the police and firemen's disability and pension fund.

The board shall report every two years to the general assembly during its regular session on the condition of the retirement system, with particular emphasis upon the payment of the employer's accrued liability, and make such recommendations, upon the advice of its actuary, as it deems necessary for the proper funding of the liabilities.
