

H B 957

129.0K

Compensation of board members.

Sec. 145.08. The members of the public employees retirement board shall serve without compensation, but shall suffer no loss or penalty whatsoever because of absence from their regular employment to attend meetings authorized and called by the board and shall be reimbursed from the expense fund as provided for in division (E) of section 145.23 of the Revised Code, for all actual necessary expense.

Any determination by the public employees retirement board that a meeting is necessary by that board, or any part of that board, is final.

Effective October 27, 1961