125 O.L.

H. B. 1

Sec. 145.36 (486-63). Allowance upon disability retirement; notice of subsequent employment filed by employer.

Upon disability retirement, a member retiring on or after July 1, 1951, shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

 (A) An annuity having a reserve equal to the amount of the member's accumulated contributions at that time ***;

(B) A pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide an annual allowance  equal to two per  cent of his final average salary multiplied by the number of his years of total service except that such allowance shall in no case be less than thirty per  cent of said final average salary plus one per  cent for each complete year or fraction thereof in excess of ten years ***;

(C) An additional basic annual pension of one hundred eighty dollars. The cost of such basic annual pension shall be included in the deficiency contribution provided by sections  145.48 and 145.50 of the Revised Code.

A year of service for the purpose of disability retirement  is  a complete year of full-time employment, or the equivalent thereof. The public employees retirement board  is the final authority in determining the eligibility of a member for such form of retirement.

A member receiving a disability allowance shall, upon attaining  sixty years of age, continue to receive either the same disability allowance or the allowance he is entitled to receive upon superannuation retirement, whichever is the greater. In addition thereto, upon attaining  sixty years of age a member shall receive any additional annuity which he may have purchased as provided by  division (C) of section 145.23 of the Revised Code.

Should any employer  employ or re-employ any member who is receiving a disability allowance, such employer shall file a notice of employment with the  board designating the date of employment. In case of employment of a member receiving a disability allowance without having filed  such notice such employer shall pay from funds provided by the employer to the  board an amount equal to the portion of the disability retirement allowance paid to such member subsequent to the date of employment.

Effective October 1, 1953
