

HB 225

131 OL

Treasurer of state shall be custodian of funds; bond required; deposit of funds.

Sec. 3307.12. The treasurer of state shall be the custodian of the funds of the state teachers retirement system, and all disbursements therefrom shall be paid by him only upon vouchers duly authorized by the state teachers retirement board and bearing the signatures of the *** chairman and secretary of said board. Such signatures may be affixed through the use of a mechanical check signing device.

The treasurer of state shall give a separate and additional bond in such amount as is fixed by the governor and with sureties approved by the governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the treasurer of state as custodian of the funds of the system. Such bond shall be deposited with the secretary of state and kept in his office. The governor may require the treasurer of state to give additional bonds, as the funds of said system increase, in such amounts and at such times as are fixed by the governor, which additional bonds shall be conditioned and filed as is provided for the original bond of the treasurer of state covering the funds of the system.

The treasurer of state shall deposit any portion of the funds of the system not needed for immediate use in the same manner and subject to law with respect to the deposit of state funds by the treasurer of state, and all interest earned by such portion of the said retirement funds as is deposited by the treasurer of state shall be collected by him and placed to the credit of such funds.
