

Retired member may be re-employed.

Sec. 3309.341. A former member receiving a retirement allowance other than a disability allowance from this system, and hereafter referred to as a superannuate, may be employed, anything contained in sections 3309.01 to 3309.99, inclusive, of the Revised Code to the contrary notwithstanding; provided:

(A) Such superannuate shall have received a retirement allowance from this system for at least eighteen months; and

(B) The employer shall request the retirement board to authorize such employment and shall submit a report of a medical examiner designated by the employer that such superannuate is physically and mentally competent to perform the duties to be assigned.

During such employment the pension portions of the monthly payments of the retirement allowance shall be terminated on the first day of the month of such employment, and thereafter shall be forfeited until the first day of the month after such superannuate ceases to be employed at which time the pension portions of his allowance shall be resumed. Any option selected as provided by section 3309.46 of the Revised Code, shall not be affected by such employment.

When such superannuate is employed he shall become a new entrant of the retirement system and shall have all the rights and privileges and be charged with all obligations of membership. Such new membership beginning on or after July 1, 1955 shall not include the survivor benefit rights provided for in section 3309.45 of the Revised Code.

If a superannuate should be paid any amount of pension allowance to which he is not entitled under the provisions of this section, such amount shall be certified by the retirement board to the superintendent of public instruction who shall order such amount repaid from the state public school fund to the retirement system from any amount due the school district in which such superannuate was employed.

Effective June 29, 1955
