HB 389

Sec. 742.31. Beginning the first day of the first month following the effective date of this amendment, each EACH employee shall contribute an amount equal to ~~nine and one-half~~ TEN per cent of his salary to the police and firemen's disability and pension fund. The amount shall be deducted by the employer from the employee's salary as defined in division (N) of section 742.01 of the Revised Code for each payroll period, irrespective of whether the minimum compensation provided by law for the employee is reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent to the deductions, and payment to him less the deductions is a complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands for the services rendered by him during the period covered by such payment.

SECTION 4. The increase in the employee contribution rate resulting from the amendment of section 742.31 of the Revised Code by this act shall commence on the first day of the first month following the effective date of this act.
